

September 10, 2007

BIOENERGY INTERNATIONAL, LLC
ORGANIZATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENT
“Patrick Cheng Song, Director of Finance”

Patrick Song joined BioEnergy on September 4, 2007, assuming the position of Director of Finance. Patrick brings an exceptional background in Project Finance, Business Development and Strategic Planning to BioEnergy.

Patrick attended Stanford University, graduating with a B.A. degree in Quantitative Economics and an M.A. in International Policy Studies. He subsequently attended Harvard University graduating with an M.B.A.

Patrick’s primary job responsibilities will include;

- Development of the annual budget, strategic plan and performing other financial analysis as required.
- Providing financial support on project opportunities, to include financial modeling and debt/equity financing.
- Providing financial and business support on license agreements, investment agreements, and business partnerships.
- Preparation of marketing presentations and detailed cash flow modeling.

We are all excited to have Patrick join our team, and firmly believe his leadership will assist the company in achieving our aggressive goals in the future.

Patrick will initially report to the Corporate Controller, Ralph Tapia.

Please join me in welcoming Patrick to BioEnergy International, LLC.